

Hiring Process FAQs

What can I expect during the interview process?

We aim to make the interview process efficient and effective, though the number of interviews and their duration can vary depending on factors like the role's urgency, business area, and the hiring manager's approach. For detailed guidance, connect with your recruiter.

Who can I contact for updates?

Your recruiter will be your point of contact throughout the interview and selection process. Feel free to reach out to them at any point by using the contact information provided in the interview confirmation email.

If being reimbursed for interview related expenses, how long should I expect to wait?

The typical timeframe for receiving your reimbursement is around 3-6 weeks. Please reach out to your recruitment team for more details.
