

MLRS® M270

The MLRS is a highly-mobile, automatic system that fires surface-to-surface rockets and missiles from the M270 platform.

Capabilities

MLRS Family of Munitions

GMLRS®

12 Rounds - 70 km

ER GMLRS

12 Rounds - 150 km

ATACMS™

2 Round - 300 km

PrSM

4 Rounds - 499+ km

Combat Operations
Supporting National Defense

3-Man Crew Support for quick fire missions without having to leave cab

C-17 and C-5 transportable

Rapid Emplacement and Reload for enhanced survivability in high threat environments

Economic Impact

More than...
190 suppliers
in 31 states

More than...
130 designated as small businesses

See M270
in Action

M270 B-Roll

Milestones

US Army awarded FY23 contracts to Lockheed Martin to modernize MLRS to M270A2 variant

More than a dozen nations field M270 launchers.

*Flags indicate M270 procurement

Technology Enhancements

New and Upgraded

600 HP engines, Improved Armored Cabs (IAC) and Common Fire Control System (CFCS), Transmissions
and Improved Launcher Mechanical System (ILMS)
components

Improved Armored Cabs

significantly expand interior volume and new energy-absorbing seats provide additional protection.

MLRS and GLMRS are Registered Trademarks of Lockheed Martin Corporation. ATACMS is a Trademark of Lockheed Martin Corporation.
Approved for public release. DAL2023080105